		32	G$-11/4	123 mos.	FE	Mr made an excellent record in the CS, recognised by consistently Strong evaluations and by sward of the Intelligence Star. He became dissatisfied with what he considered to be too many people, too much paper, loss of challenge in the job, "parochial" manage ment, and lack of prospects for improvement. He resigned to join the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs. 25X1
		35	C5-12	93 mos.	WH	A consistently Strong performer, resigned to seek employment elsewhere. His stated reasons were dissatisfaction with CS career management and a belief that his duties and responsibilities were not commensurate with his age and ability. He was not bitter but was dissatisfied with what he considered too much concern with ferms and procedures and not enough for the Agency's human

His resignation was prompted by a number of factors, including family pressure and gradual loss of motivation, precipitated finally by prespect of transfer from EUR to FE and assignment to Vietnam. An exceptionally qualified officer, he performed outstandingly until the mid-60's and then slipped gradually from Outstanding to very nearly a Marginal rating. He left without hitterness, still convinced of the essentiality of the Agency and its mission, but unhappy about growth in size and bureaucracy.
